

Voicemail and Unified Messaging

Your service comes with a voicemail box as well as Unified Messaging. Unanswered calls will automatically be sent to voicemail. There are two ways to access your voicemail:

1. Calling your own phone number will put you directly into your voicemail box allowing you to listen to, delete and manage saved voicemails.
2. Picking up your phone and dialing *62 will put you into the main voice portal menu. The main voice portal menu gives you access to additional features, where option 1 will also put you into your voicemail box.

Initial Voicemail Setup (*62)

The first time you call your voicemail box or dial *62, you will be prompted to set a pass code to access your voicemail and to record your personalized name. Pass codes should be 4-to-8 digits. When calling from your own phone number, it's not necessary to enter your pass code to access your voicemail. Your recorded name will be played to callers as part of the default greeting callers will hear. You'll later have the option to record a longer greeting, though you don't have to. The default greeting users will hear is, "Your recorded name" is not available to take your call. Please leave a message after the tone.'

Once you have completed the setup, you can record greetings and access your voicemails.

With just the name recorded, callers will hear, "John Doe, is not available to take your call. Please leave a message after the tone". To record new voicemail greetings, see Using Your Voicemail Box.

Call Forwarding Options

Option 4 provides a menu for managing your Call Forward Always feature. The * code entries are also available. The options allow you to activate and deactivate your Call Forward Always as well as change and listen to the current Call Forwarding Always destination. The Call Forwarding Always destination number is stored in case that number is always used as the call forward destination. Option 1 to activate and option 2 to deactivate is all that is required.
